

Board Support Package Award Press Release

January 2024 – The FirePoint Applied Innovation Center (AIC) located in Huntsville, Alabama, recently awarded DornerWorks Ltd a Phase II fixed price contract with a 6 month period of performance, to study and evaluate the benefits of Open Virtual I/O Devices for Army avionics applications. Phase I of the BSP effort was successfully completed by the AIC last October.

About AIC - The Applied Innovation Center (AIC) is a dedicated prototyping, collaboration, and evaluation facility located in Huntsville, Alabama focused on accelerating innovation and technology adoption within the Department of Defense.

About DORNERWORKS Ltd. – DornerWorks innovates with technology to help product makers turn ideas into reality. With embedded electronics, FPGA, hardware design and software engineering expertise we accelerate your product development and lower risk for adopting advanced technologies. For more information, visit DornerWorks.com.